

Grade 6 Literacy
Week of October 26 – October 30

Lessons 1: First Draft

The drafting stage is also called a sloppy copy.

- Take your ideas and write them into sentences and paragraphs.
- Do not worry about grammar, spelling, or punctuation.

Before writing your draft, watch this video: <https://youtu.be/7klxTIKjZRw>

On the template provided, you will find a place to write your first draft. Don't worry about errors. You will have a chance to revise and edit this draft. Go write your draft.

First Draft Template

The next step is to put your ideas - your brainstorming, lists, and mind mapping - together into the first draft of your descriptive writing. Try to get all your ideas on paper and don't worry about making your first draft perfect.
