

HUNTING FOR ALLITERATIONS!

LISTENING FOR THE SAME SOUNDS AT THE BEGINNING OF WORDS

Using language in creative and playful ways helps us understand how language works.

Listening and speaking builds our understanding and helps us to learn.

GATHER MATERIALS

- Paper
- Writing tool - pen, pencil, felt, sharpie, etc.
- Alphabet chart

LISTEN AND THINK

Let's go on an alliteration hunt with the following books. Listen for the same sounds at the beginning of words.

- Some Smug Slug
- The North American Animal ABC's
- Animalia
- Let's go on another alliteration hunt with Canadian author Jessica Young. As she reads pages from her book, My Blue Is Happy, see if you can hear her say the same sounds at the beginning of words such as "cozy as a curled up kitten."

CREATE & SHARE

- Choose three colours and DRAW a picture of what each colour means to you. Use that colour to make your picture.
- WRITE how each colour makes you feel? For example, My red is ___like ___. Remember to write the sounds you hear and to use your alphabet chart to help you form your letters.

GO BEYOND

- Make your own book of colours and how they make you feel. Maybe yours will be called, My Green is Happy!
