

LEO LIONNI

AUTHOR/ILLUSTRATOR SPOTLIGHT

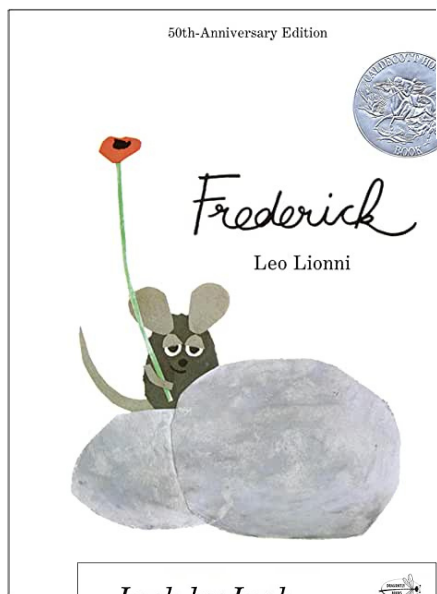

Stories can be told through pictures and in words.

Everyone can be a reader and can create stories.

A color of his own

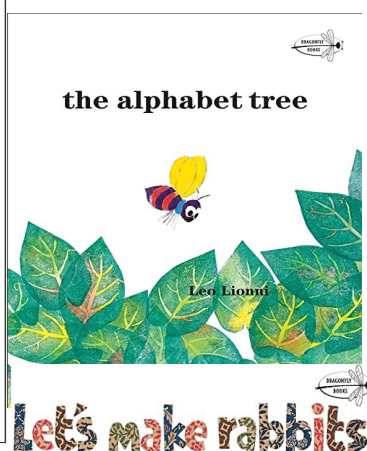

Leo Lionni

50th-Anniversary Edition

Frederick

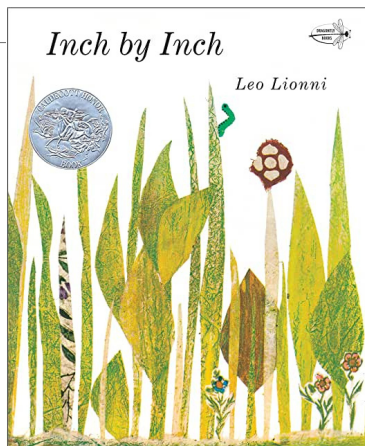

Leo Lionni

the alphabet tree

Leo Lionni

Let's make rabbits

Inch by Inch

Leo Lionni

a fable by
Leo Lionni

GATHER MATERIALS

- Paper or one of your pre made books
- Torn paper (different colours and sizes)
- Writing tool - pen, pencil, felt, sharpie, etc.
- Scissors (optional)
- Paint and plastic baggie (optional)

READ AND THINK

Leo Lionni was an artist before he became a writer. In many of his books he uses torn paper to create his characters. Listen to some or all of these stories and notice who the main characters are and how they are created.

- Little Blue and Little Yellow (for a fun painting activity look here).
- Frederick
- Swimmy
- Alexander and the Wind Up Mouse
- A Colour of His Own
- Inch by Inch
- The Alphabet Tree

What's your favourite Leo Lionni story? Who is your favourite character? What did you like about this character?

CREATE & SHARE

- Create one or more characters inspired by Leo Lionni. You can draw them or use torn paper. Here is an example.
- Use them as characters in your next storymaking or bookmaking project.

GO BEYOND

- Read along with Let's Make Rabbits.
- With your pencil, make your own "pencil rabbit".
- With your scissors and some scrap paper, make your own "scissor rabbit".