

MO WILLEMS-AUTHOR SPOTLIGHT

Everyone can be a reader and writer

Readers use strategies to make sense of what they read, hear, and view.

We grow as readers when we read books that interest us and talk about what we read.

READ EVERYDAY!

Remember to find a quiet spot and choose a book (or more) to read EVERYDAY from the online Resource link, from the public library or borrow from family and friends.

Continue to build your daily reading time and share what you're reading with others. They might have a recommendation for you, too!

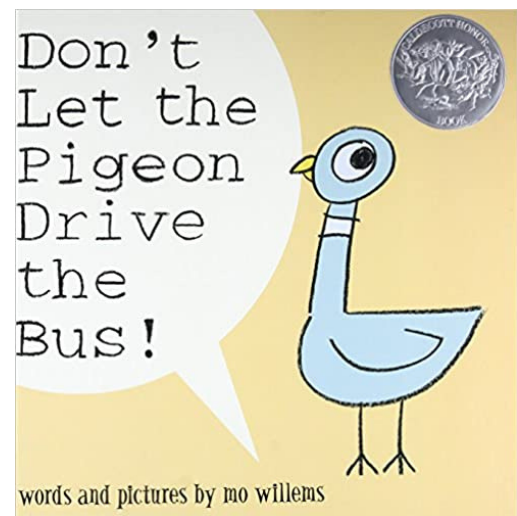

GATHER MATERIALS

- Your Reader's Notebook
- A writing tool

READ, THINK, RESPOND

Read along with Mo Willems books and think about your connections. Does the character or the story remind you of someone or of a time in your life?

- Don't Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus!
- Don't Let the Pigeon Stay Up Late!
- Readers make connections as they read. Think about a time when you tried to convince your parents into letting you do something. Write about this connection in your Reader's notebook.

GO BEYOND

Read along with other Mo Willems books featuring Pigeon:

- The Pigeon Needs a Bath
- The Pigeon Finds a Hotdog
- The Pigeon Has To Go To School
- Think about what other Pigeon books you might create.
- Learn how to draw Pigeon here.
