Lesson 4: Where the Wild Things Are - Reflections

WHERE THE WILD THINGS ARE

STORY AND PICTURES BY MAURICE SENDAK

Answer 3 thick questions from the last assignment. These might be questions from before, during or after reading the book. Remember you will have to think and search for the answers! They should not be found in the story easily. Refer back to the previous lessons as a reference and to remind yourself of what your questions were. Watch the story again if it will help!

Inquiry Question

Can you answer any of your own questions from before, during, or after reading the story?

Choose 3 thick questions from your last assignment on “Where the Wild Things Are.” Now that you have listened to the entire story and had some time to think about it, you will now try to answer 3 thick questions that you had. Were any of your questions from “before reading” or “during reading” answered by the end of the story? This is your chance to show your deep-thinking answer!

Write the question you are answering above the box. Use the box to write your answers in full sentences. Support your thinking with details.
