

REFLECTING ON MY READING

Everyone can be a reader and writer.

We grow as readers when we read books that interest us and talk about what we read.

GATHER MATERIALS

- Paper
- Hole punch
- Twist ties
- Buttons and recycled card (optional)
- Writing and drawing tools

REFLECT AND THINK ABOUT YOURSELF AS A READER

Look back in your Reader's Notebook and see what books you've already read. Think about which ones were your favourite or that interested you the most. You might have a few that were not so appealing, too. Do you prefer non fiction or fiction? Are you reading from a variety of books or from similar topics? Have you improved your reading stamina and read for longer periods of time? What have you learned about yourself as a reader?

CREATE AND SHARE

- Create a "book of bookmarks" which will hold all of all the titles you've read so far. As this video shows, remember to write the title, author and illustrator on one side and a summary or what you liked (or didn't like) about the book on the other side. You may even want to include "recommended for anyone who likes___."

GO BEYOND

- Make a book that opens like a fan with words to inspire you. Make one for yourself or for a gift for someone. Learn how to make a FAN BOOK here.
