

Winter Break Newspaper (Grade 4/5)

Learning Goals:

Language and text can be a source of creativity and joy.

Materials

Copy of the Newspaper Template OR make your own using lined/blank paper

Pencil crayons/markers

Activities

Write a newspaper that highlights some of the activities you did over the break.
Some suggestions might be:

- Write a movie review for a movie you watched
- Write a book review for a book you read
- Describe what you saw in your neighborhood when you went for a walk/drive (Christmas lights, snowman, house decorations, etc)
- Describe a kind act you did for another person
- A recipe or food review for a dish you made or watched another person make
- Advertisement for a game you played
- Favourite activity you did over the holiday
- New holiday traditions you made with your family this year

Share your newspaper with a family member or friend online or in person.

Large rectangular box with a thin black border. It contains 10 horizontal lines for writing, starting from the top and ending near the bottom. The lines are evenly spaced.

Rectangular box with a thin black border. It contains 10 horizontal lines for writing, starting from the top and ending near the bottom. The lines are evenly spaced.

Rectangular box with a thin black border. It contains 1 horizontal line for writing near the top.

Rectangular box with a thin black border. It contains 10 horizontal lines for writing, starting from the top and ending near the bottom. The lines are evenly spaced.

Rectangular box with a thin black border. It contains 10 horizontal lines for writing, starting from the top and ending near the bottom. The lines are evenly spaced.

Rectangular box with a thin black border. It is currently empty.

Rectangular box with a thin black border. It contains 5 horizontal lines for writing, starting from the top and ending near the bottom. The lines are evenly spaced.

Rectangular box with a thin black border. It contains 5 horizontal lines for writing, starting from the top and ending near the bottom. The lines are evenly spaced.