

Grade 4 English Language Arts

Week of January 11 – January 15

Lesson 2: A Tale of Two Beasts

People and characters can perceive the exact same situation/events in different ways.

Take a look at the read-aloud below of the book A Tale of Two Beasts. How do both characters perceive the events that took place differently?

A Tale of Two Beasts: https://youtu.be/KyrmC_L2ZtU

A Tale of Two Beasts

How do both characters perceive the same events differently? Provide 3 pieces of evidence to support your claim (see example below)

Part 1: The Little Girls Perspective	Part 2: The Animals Perspective
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The little girl rescues the 'beast' from a tree.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The animal is happily hanging from a tree when the 'beast' ambushes him.

What does it mean to have an 'open mind'?
