Lesson 4: Perspective Taking

Perspective taking the ability to look beyond your own point of view and consider how someone else may think or feel about something.

Take the Perspective of Others

Have you ever had an argument with someone? Have you ever disagreed with someone? I bet the answer is yes!

We all have disagreements with others at times, and sometimes it can be hard to see the other person's side. You feel, or you might know that you are right. But what if you're both right?

Perspective taking doesn't always mean adopting someone else's perspective, it can simply mean acknowledging and recognizing other people's perceptions are their truths. They truly do see things in a different way, and perspective taking can mean respecting that.

Every situation can be seen from multiple perspectives, or in other words, every situation can be seen in multiple ways. Take a look at the video below:
