NAME _____

Many pieces of literature have illustrations that help to tell a story. Below is a copy of a poem by Shel Silverstein. Read the poem carefully, and try to guess what his illustration looks like.

Shapes

A square was sitting quietly

Outside his rectangular shack

When a triangle came down — keerplunk! —

And struck him in the back.

“I must go to the hospital,”

Cried the wounded square,

So a passing rolling circle

Picked him up and took him there.
